

Welcome Visitors! Thank you for worshipping with us today, at Elmwood Avenue Presbyterian Church. You have enriched our community and we hope the service held meaning and beauty for you. You may wish to visit us on the web at www.elmwoodchurch.ca to learn more about us and what opportunities are available for personal spiritual growth and service to others. If you are not an involved member of a faith community, but seeking one, we invite you to return here any Sunday for worship and fellowship.

If you would like to speak to the minister, or have him visit, you are very welcome to be in touch with him. Please contact the church office 519-438-3492

The 8 Beatitudes of Christmas

A Christmas poem by Paul Berchtold

- |                                                                                      |                                                                                  |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. Blessed are you, poorest baby,You are the Kingdom of Heaven.          | 5. Blessed, O giver of mercy,Who comes to you will receive it.       |
| 2. Blessed are your tears and crying,You are comforted by Mary.          | 6. Blessed, purest holiest child,Who not only sees, but is, God.     |
| 3. Blessed are you, humble meek child,You are ruler over all lands.      | 7. Blessed, O greatest peacemaker,The first-born child of Father God |
| 4. Blessed your hunger and thirsting,To atone for sins, bring God to us. | 8. Chased, persecuted by Herod,You are Blessed King of heaven.       |

This poem is an inspirational twist on the 8 Beatitudes, telling them back to the Child Jesus in meditation, prayer and praise.

A good way to appreciate this poem, is to compare each verse to the original 8 Beatitudes, the very first major public teaching of Jesus recorded in the bible, beginning what is known as "The Sermon on the Mount". (Matthew 5:3-10)

Elmwood Avenue Presbyterian Church was founded in 1925 to continue the tradition of the Presbyterian Church in Canada when Knox Presbyterian Church voted to enter Church Union. This may be the first post-union congregation to have erected a building. Our Sanctuary was dedicated on July 19, 1926. We draw your attention to our windows designed by Christopher Wallis, and our organ, built by Gabriel Kney, both of London. The congregation has been ministered to by outstanding spiritual leaders, Dr. Frederick W. Gilmour, Dr. John Fleck, Dr. D. Glenn Campbell, Rev. Rod Ferguson, Rev. Karen Timbers and Rev. Kevin Steeper.
