Dear Friends of Elmwood,

I've attached this week's Common Worship at Home to this email, as usual, but I haven't had time to write a fresh Pastoral Letter this week. When I look at my schedule for the next few weeks, I foresee that I won't have much time then either. But I will write when I can. I will continue to send copies of the worship service for those who are still at home.

If you're eating a big Thanksgiving Meal this weekend, you may want to fold yourself into a big armchair and doze off afterwards. I often do. But 'dozing off' puts me in mind of Mr Bean's visit to Church. Can you watch him not laugh out loud? I dare you. Here it is:

Remember, if you don't wish to receive these letters anymore, you can always 'unsubscribe'.

Yours in the faith, and in gratitude,
Andrew
